From the Athletic Director:

Hello Bruin Fans,

Girls Basketball had just one game this week. Both 7th and 8th grade teams lost to unbeaten teams from Center Grove Central. The 8th graders (5-1) now sit in 2nd place in the conference standings. The 7th graders (3-3) are now in 5th place. They will have a busy week next week with 3 games in 4 days.

Wrestling lost its only match of the week 60-51 to Southport last night. The match vs Northview that was postponed on Tuesday will be made up on Monday February 11th. The match vs Eastwood that was originally scheduled for February 19th has also been moved to February 11th. Both matches will be here at Belzer. Our wrestlers will face Eastwood at 5:30 and Northview at 6:30. We travel to Fall Creek Valley on Tuesday before the inaugural Marion County Wrestling Tournament begins on Thursday. There will be no reserve matches on Thursday during the Marion County Tournament.

The Swimming and Diving began its season last weekend at the Wacky Warrior Relays in Whiteland. Both teams placed in the top 4 as the boys took 3rd and the girls 4th. The boys followed that up with a convincing win over Beech Grove on Monday while our girls fell to the Hornets by just two points. They will travel to Pike on Tuesday before hosting New Palestine and Westfield on Thursday. The meet vs Eastern Hancock that was cancelled last week will not be rescheduled. Please remember all our home swim meets are held at Lawrence Central.

Softball open gyms are being held at Lawrence Central every Wednesday from 6:00-8:00 PM in the LC Fieldhouse. Students interested in playing softball here at Belzer this spring are encouraged to attend.

Conditioning for Track and Field is offered at Lawrence Central from 4:00-5:30 every day this month. Belzer students are invited to attend those sessions with the LC coaching staff as well.

Tryouts for the Belzer spring sports teams will begin on March 11th. Please remember that students must have a complete physical and online emergency form in order to participate in our athletic program. Both forms are available below.
